PRODUCT OF THE WEEK

ENDLESS WOOD

Endless is the new boiserie project which TreP enters into the design of residential spaces with.

T. Designed to provide maximum flexibility, it is available in more than 50 different wood finishes, offering a wide range of customization.

It is made with panels that have a maximum height of 3 meters and a variable width from 70 to 90 cm. It integrates with the the doors Surface56 with hidden frames and with all other openings in the same Surface collection, bringing to life the Architectural Surfaces program.

CLIENTE DELLA SETTIMANA

SALAROLI HOME

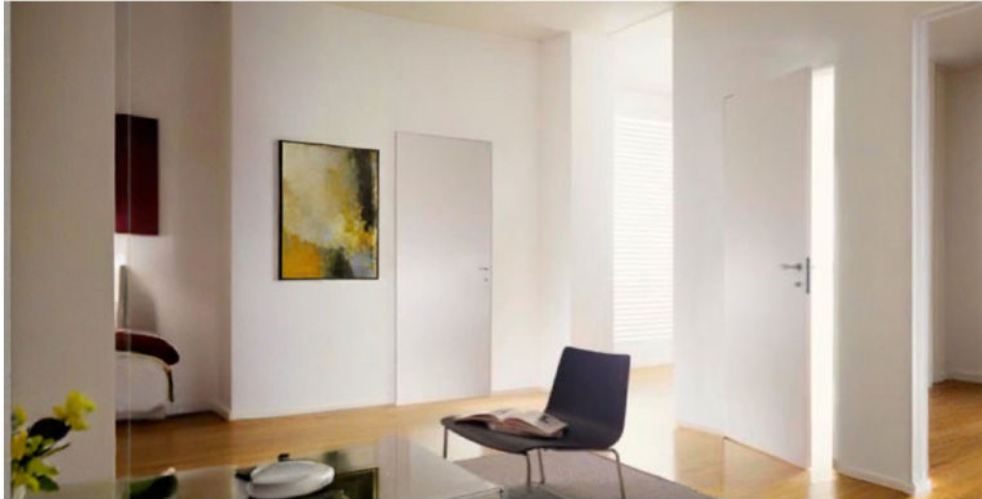

In Emilia-Romagna our reference is Salaroli Home, which means customized design.

Functionality, style, originality, design, and attention to customer needs: Salaroli Home is all these things together.

Thanks to its many years of experience and highly qualified consultants, Salaroli offers a design service that is attentive to specific needs and tastes, without compromising on practicality or cutting-edge technical solutions.

In the Salaroli Home showrooms in Bologna, Cesena, Forlì, Ravenna, and Rimini, you will find our collaborators ready to guide you step by step in bringing your home project to life.

In Cesena you can find a very representative corner of our collection.

PROJECT OF THE WEEK

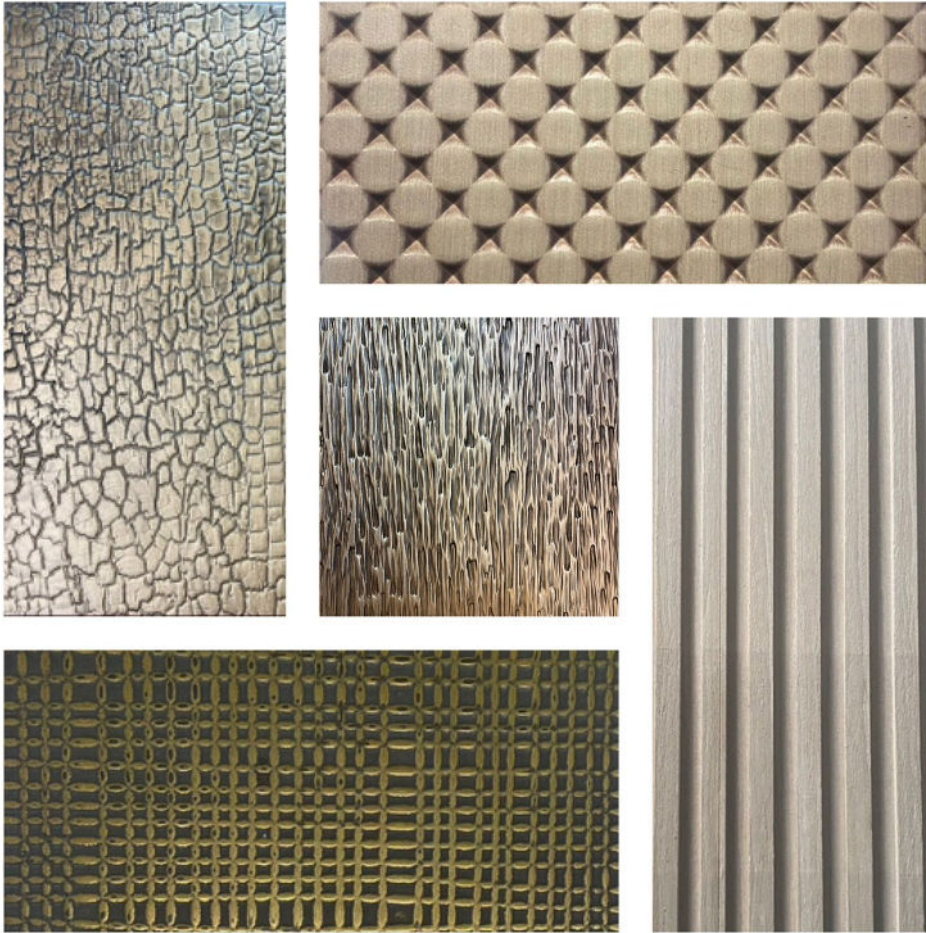

SURFACE 50 AT PALM JUMEIRAH

Our door collection Surface50 with hidden frame has been selected to furnish a luxury villa on the Palm in Dubai, currently undergoing renovation.

The project was designed and executed by Kea General Contractor, one of the leading players in the Emirates market.

Kea chose our products for their exceptional quality and the customization options we provided, which included special product dimensions and the use of Jotun finishes, a brand particularly renowned in the Emirates market.

We are proud to have contributed to the realization of this prestigious project.

NEWS OF THE WEEK

NEW ENDLESS 3D FINISHES

We are pleased to introduce four new finishes for the “three-dimensional” collection of our boiserie.

In addition to the well-established “cannettato” version, we now offer new material decorations, printed on MDF panels in natural wood tones, black core, or veneered.

These finishes can also be customized with dyes or lacquers to create stunning 3D effects on the boiserie paneling.
